performance audio, and even video clips. We will also try to send out rehearsal updates this way as well. If you have questions, call or email me and I can help you out.

- Just a note. You have to be accepted to follow the band on Twitter. If you request to follow and I deny your request, it's because I don't recognize your email. Just send Mr. McClure an email to bmccclure@princetonisd.net letting me know who you are and I will add you.
